Daniel, a wise and faithful man of God, was a president in the kingdom of king Darius. The other leaders and princes were jealous of Daniel and wanted to cause trouble for him. When they could not find anything bad about Daniel, they got together and made an evil plan.

LION'S DEN 2/5

They went to king Darius and made a new and unchangeable law that for 30 days everyone had to pray to king Darius. Any person found praying to anyone other than the king, would be thrown into the lions' den.

Daniel's enemies knew that he loved God more than anything and that he always prayed with his windows open. They watched and waited until Daniel came to pray as he always did. Happy, they went straight to the king and told him that they had seen Daniel praying to his God.

LION'S DEN 4/5

The poor king could not change his law and was very sad as Daniel was thrown to the lions. King Darius could not sleep and rushed down to the lions' den very early the next morning. "Did your God save you Daniel?" he cried.

LION'S DEN 5/5

"God sent an angel to shut the lions' mouths" Daniel replied. The king was so very happy and had Daniel taken out of the den. The king then wrote letters to all the people and nations, telling them of the wonderful thing that the God of Daniel had done.
